PREFACE

EXPERIENCE has shown that owing to the many New Creations, Births, Marriages and Deaths which occur during the space of one year there is a growing need for more frequent revision of a Peerage than is afforded by the ordinary Annual Edition.

In response, therefore, to a very generally expressed desire for such a publication, DOD'S PEERAGE, Ltd., now present the SECOND EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to the Peerage, including Baronetage and Knightage, etc., which is incidentally a supplement to every Peerage; and, if sufficient support is given, it is intended to produce these Supplements annually in April and August.

The Supplement has been brought up to date, and includes the following information :—

1. In cases where the Head of the Family has died since the Annual Edition of the Peerage, Baronetage and Knightage was published (Dec., 1914) the article on that family has been revised and is reprinted in full.

2. All available information in regard to the recipients of New Honours, Peers, Baronets and Knights.

3. The lists of the Companionage, etc., brought up to date.

4. A list of the holders of office in the National Government.

THE BOOK OF KNIGHTS.

Some of the Peerage Books before the public include short biographies of Knights, but none of them give to Knights the same treatment, as to the publication of their arms and issue, which Peers and Baronets receive, though the interest and value of the information is the same in all cases.

For this reason, and as a means of putting on permanent record facts of considerable interest and importance, Dod's Peerage Limited are now issuing which contains, in addition to full biographies, all available particulars of their issue and arms.

Imperial 8vo. Price 21/-. With many fine reproductions of Armorial Bearings.

"DOD'S PEERAGE"

undertakes the Preparation and Printing of

FAMILY HISTORIES.

PEDIGREES TRACED & PROVED BY DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE.

Searches made in Parish Registers, Wills, the Public Record Office and in other sources of genealogical information in all parts of the country.
Advice given on all questions relating to genealogy, claims to titles, etc.
